

Intake/Interview & Quality Review Training

2020 Filing Season

The Objectives of this Training

At the end of this lesson you will be able to describe:

- The purpose of following a consistent Intake/Interview and Quality Review process.
- ➤ The different sections of Form 13614-C, Intake/Interview and Quality Review Sheet.
- The basic steps of a complete Intake Process.
- The basic steps of a complete Interview Process.
- ➤ The basic steps of a complete Quality Review Process.

Introduction

Taxpayers using services offered through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) Programs should be confident they receive quality service. This includes having an accurate tax return prepared.

A basic component of preparing an accurate return begins with explaining the tax preparation process, completing all questions on F 13614-C, listening to the taxpayer, and asking the right questions.

Form 13614-C, Intake/Interview & Quality Review Sheet, is a tool designed to help ensure taxpayers are given the opportunity to provide all needed information before their tax return is prepared. When used properly, this form effectively contributes to accurate tax return preparation.

The Purpose of this Training

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) continues to emphasize the positive correlation between the proper use of the Intake/Interview and Quality Review Process and the preparation of an accurate tax return.

IRS oversight reviews indicate consistent use of complete intake, interview, and quality review processes results in more accurate returns. When properly used, accuracy of VITA/TCE returns has increased.

Per Quality Site Requirement #2, it is mandatory that Form 13614-C is completed for each tax return prepared. Volunteers who refuse to prepare returns without following the Intake/Interview process are in violation of the Volunteer Standards of Conduct.

Our data shows that, in most cases, Form 13614-C is available at all sites and taxpayers are completing the form. However, there are still challenges with certified volunteer preparers not using the tool during the interview and quality review processes.

This training is designed to encourage all volunteers to follow a thorough and consistent Intake/interview and Quality Review Process.

Form 13614-C Job Aid for Volunteers is located in Publication 4012, Volunteer Resource Guide.

The Intake Process Completing Form 13614-C

Methods for completing Form 13614-C may vary from site to site. In most cases, the taxpayer completes pages 1 through 3 of the Form 13614-C before meeting with a tax preparer. The preparer then discusses all of the provided taxpayer information.

Some sites prefer that volunteer tax preparers complete the intake form with the taxpayer while conducting an interview.

At all sites, volunteers will complete the form with the taxpayer if assistance is required. No matter what method used, all questions on Form 13614-C must be answered.

All taxpayers at Virtual VITA sites also need to complete form 14446 to give consent for the site to prepare the return using the method(s) outlined in Part I of the form. Both spouses need to complete and sign this form if married filing jointly.

Note: Form 13614-C is printed in English and Spanish. It is also available to be downloaded from irs.gov in the following languages: Chinese, Chinese Traditional, Creole, Korean, Polish, Tagalog, Portuguese and Vietnamese.

The Intake Process: Verifying Identity

Identity Theft continues to be a nationwide problem. The interview should begin by requiring photo ID to verify the identity of the taxpayer and spouse on the tax return.

Exceptions for requiring photo ID should only be made under extreme circumstances and for taxpayers known to the site after being approved by the site coordinator.

For more information, please refer to Publication 4299, Privacy, Confidentiality and Civil Rights - A Public Trust.

The Intake Process Return and Volunteer Certification Levels

The site must have a process to ensure the return is within scope of the VITA/TCE Programs and to identify the certification level needed for the tax return. The site must also have a process to ensure volunteers have the certification needed for the returns they prepare.

Form 13614-C includes certification levels as shown:

- > (B) for Basic
- (HSA) for Heath Savings Account
- > (A) for Advanced
- > (M) for Military

Yes	No	Unsure	Part III – Income – Last Year, Did You (or Your Spouse) Receive

			2. (A) Tip Income?
			3. (B) S orms W-2, 1098-T)
			4. (B) Interest/Dividends from: checking/savings accounts, bonds, CDs, brokerage? (Forms 1099-INT, 1099-DIV)
			5. (B) Refund of state/local income taxes? (Form 1099-G)
пΙ	П	🗇	6. (B) Alimony income or separate maintenance payments?

The Intake Process Referrals To Low Income Tax Clinics (LITC's)

Some taxpayers come to the site for help with tax issues, not only to have their return prepared. The Low Income Taxpayer Clinic (LITC) provides services to taxpayers who are low income or who speak English as a second language (ESL).

Clinics participating in the LITC program provide:

- Representation for individuals with disputes with the IRS;
- Education about taxpayer rights and responsibilities; and
- > Advocacy on behalf of low income and ESL taxpayers.

LITC services are free or low cost for eligible taxpayers. Each clinic determines whether prospective clients meet their guidelines. Ask your Site Coordinator if there are LITC's available in your area or go to www.irs.gov and search "LITC" for more information and the locations of help near your location.

Note: Publication 4012 has information about various ways a taxpayer can get help with IRS issues.

The Interview Process

Do not begin entering taxpayer information into the software until you have completed a thorough interview with the taxpayer because you may find at any point in the interview process that:

- The tax return is above your certification level
- The tax return is outside the scope of the VITA/TCE Programs
- The taxpayer does not have all needed information or documentation

Discovering these things before starting a return will save your time, the taxpayer's time, and will avoid much frustration.

The Interview Process: Clarifying Questions

You should update or correct the intake sheet with any changes identified during the interview with the taxpayer.

This review and discussion is a great opportunity to engage the taxpayer in a conversation. Make sure the taxpayer understands all of the questions and that you understand all of their answers.

Clarifying information while reviewing Form 13614-C during the Interview is a very effective way to gather all needed information.

For example:

"You marked that no one else lived in your home. Is that correct?"

"Is your pension your only source of income?"

The Interview Process: Conflicting Information

Be alert for conflicting information. Sometimes an entry on one part will raise a question on another part of Form 13614-C.

For example:

"I see that you and your husband both worked, yet you did not indicate you paid any child care expenses for your 3 year old son."

"I see that you are over the age of 65, yet you did not indicate that you received Social Security benefits."

"I see that you answered "No" to the question 'Can anyone claim you on their tax return?' But since you're a student living with you parents, I'm wondering if they can claim you."

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part I - Your Personal Information

Verify that the information in Part I is correct and complete. Ensure that the names match the social security document.

Note: If the taxpayer indicates that they are not a U.S. citizen, use the flow chart in Publication 4012 to verify that you are certified to prepare their return.

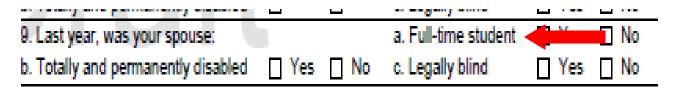

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part I - Your Personal Information

Information in Part I impacts tax law determinations.

For example, when a taxpayer is a full time student it may impact multiple tax law issues such as:

- Child and Dependent Care Credit
- Retirement Savings Contributions Credit
- Various Education Credits
- Whether the taxpayer can be claimed as a dependent

Note: Use Publication 17 to verify that the taxpayer meets the full time student requirement.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part 1

The fact that the taxpayer is Totally and Permanently Disabled or Blind may affect multiple tax law issues such as:

- > Personal exemption
- Pension taxability
- Whether the taxpayer can be claimed as a dependent

9. Last year, was your spouse:		a. Full-time student	☐ Yes ☐ No
b. Totally and permanently disabled		c. Legally blind	Yes No

Note: Verify the taxpayer does meet the requirements for Totally and Permanently Disabled or Blind as defined in Publication 17.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part II -Marital Status and Household Information

Information in this section will help you make determinations about:

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Page 2 – Overview

A critical part of the interview process is to make sure all the questions on page 2 of Form 13614-C are complete. The taxpayer may have left a question unanswered or marked the question "Unsure" because they did not understand.

Yes	No	Unsure	Check appropriate box for each question in each section

			2. (A) Tip Income?
	×		3. (B) Scholarships? (Forms W-2, 109	8-T)

These questions should be discussed with the taxpayer to determine the correct "Yes" or "No" response, and recorded on the form prior to beginning the tax return preparation.

Note: Make notes on Form 13614-C during your interview and use the Additional Comments section on page 3 to ensure the Quality Reviewer has all of the required information to determine the return is accurate.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Page 2 - Part III Income

Taxpayers are asked about income received and should check the appropriate line item "Yes", "No" or "Unsure".

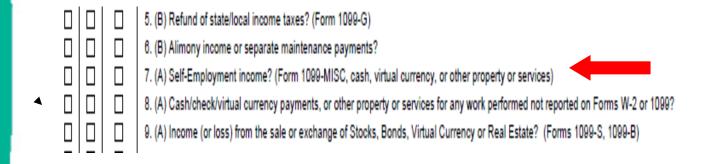

Each income item includes the type of form used to report the income (in parenthesis). As you discuss each of the questions, ensure that the answers agree with the documents provided by the taxpayer. You should change the original answer on Form 13614-C with any updated information.

			Pag

			5 (R) Refund of state/local income taxes? (Form 1000_G)

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part III - Income

You must conduct an extensive interview to ensure that taxpayers who are self-employed are reporting all income including cash payments received for work performed.

Note: You should always verify the taxpayer has provided all the necessary source documents and information.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Page 2 - Part III Income

It is necessary to ask clarifying questions, even if all the questions are answered.

For example, if the taxpayer checks "Yes" to the question "Distribution from Pensions, Annuities and/or IRA?", and they have already given you a Form 1099-R from an IRA Distribution.

You should then ask, "Is this your only distribution?"

	X	10. (B) Disability income? (such as payments from insurance, or workers compensation) (Forms 1099-R, W-2)
X		11. (A) Distribution from Pensions, Annuities, and/or IRA? (Form 1099-R)
	X	12. (B) Unemployment compensation? (Form 1099-G)
	X	13. (B) Social Security or Railroad Retirement Benefits? (Forms SSA-1099, RRB-1099)

At that point, you may find the taxpayer left a Form 1099-R at home and will have to return with it before the return can be prepared.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part IV - Expenses

Questions in this section help alert you to expenses paid by the taxpayer that may affect their return.

Yes	No	Unsure	Part IV – Expenses – Last Year, Did You (or Your Spouse) Pay
			1. (B) Alimony or separate maintenance payments? If yes, do you have the recipient's SSN? Yes No
			2. Contributions to a retirement account?
			3. (B) College or post secondary educational expenses for yourself, spouse or dependents? (Form 1098-T)
			4. (A) Any of the following? Medical & Dental (including insurance premiums) Mortgage Interest (Form 1098)
			☐ Taxes (State, Real Estate, Personal Property, Sales) ☐ Charitable Contributions
			5. (B) Child or dependent care expenses such as daycare?

The fact that a taxpayer had an expense is not the only consideration for a tax deduction or credit.

You will need to use your reference materials to determine eligibility for deductions and credits and take into consideration the most advantageous position for the taxpayer.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part V - Life Events

The Life Events section asks numerous questions that relate to the calculation of tax and the processing of the return.

Yes	No	Unsure	Part V – Life Events – Last Year, Did You (or Your Spouse)
			1. (HSA) Have a Health Savings Account? (Forms 5498-SA, 1099-SA, W-2 with code W in box 12)
			2. (A) Have credit card or mortgage debt cancelled/forgiven by a lender or have a home foreclosure? (Forms 1099-C, 1099-A)
			3. (A) Adopt a child?
			4. (B) Have Earned Income Credit, Child Tax Credit or American Opportunity Credit disallowed in a prior year? If yes, for which tax year?
			5. (A) Purchase and install energy-efficient home items? (such as windows, furnace, insulation, etc.)
			6. (A) Receive the First Time Homebuyers Credit in 2008?
			7. (B) Make estimated tax payments or apply last year's refund to this year's tax? If so how much?
			8. (A) File a federal return last year containing a "capital loss carryover" on Form 1040 Schedule D?
			9. (A) Have health coverage through the Marketplace (Exchange)? [Provide Form 1095-A]

Note: Publication 17 and Publication 4012 contain additional information that needs to be collected to make a correct determination.

The taxpayer will indicate how they want to receive their refund as well as other information which may be needed to complete the return.

Demographic information in this section may be collected and entered into the tax software.

The Interview Process: Page 4 Form 15080

Form 15080 (EN-SP)

Consent to Disclose Tax Return Information to VITA/TCE Tax Preparation Sites

This form will be used by most sites to obtain taxpayer's consent to have their tax information be easily available through the software when they return to a VITA/TCE site in the following years. Your Site Coordinator will instruct you on the site's procedures on how this form will be completed by the taxpayer.

The Interview Process: Due Diligence

IRS-certified volunteer preparers are required to exercise due diligence. This means, as a volunteer, you are required to do your part when preparing or quality reviewing a tax return to ensure the information on the return is correct and complete.

Generally, as an IRS tax law-certified volunteer, you can rely in good faith on information from a taxpayer without requiring documentation as verification.

However, part of due diligence requires asking a taxpayer to clarify information that may appear to be inconsistent or incomplete. When reviewing information for its accuracy, you need to ask yourself if the information is unusual or questionable.

For example: You do not need to see proof of a taxpayers cash contribution to a charity if you feel comfortable that this information is not unusual or questionable.

Remember, if you are not comfortable with the information provided by a taxpayer, you are not obligated to prepare the tax return.

Preparing the Tax Return

After you complete the intake and interview process, prepare the return in the tax preparation software.

Consult references and tools to determine filing status, exemptions, income, adjustments, deductions, credits, or payments.

Remember: Publication 4012 contains tax law information, and guidance on using tools embedded in the IRS-provided software. Other references include Publication 17 and Volunteer Tax Alerts.

Once the return is prepared, a Quality Reviewer will use the Quality Review Checklist located in Publication 4012 to complete the Quality Review.

Quality Review Process Introduction

The purpose of a Quality Review is to ensure that the taxpayer's tax return is accurate based on the Intake/Interview Sheet, and the supporting documents provided by the taxpayer and the interview with the taxpayer.

Sites will conduct a Quality Review of every return prepared. Having a second pair of eyes, focused on the Quality Review, offers the best opportunity to correct small errors before they can cause big problems.

The Quality Review takes place after the return is prepared, but before the taxpayer signs the return.

Quality Review Method

The quality review method that a site uses depends on the site size, the number of experienced volunteers available, and the certification level of the volunteers at the site.

There are two acceptable methods:

- Designated Review This preferred quality review method employs a designated Quality Reviewer, a volunteer who is solely dedicated to reviewing returns prepared by the other volunteers at the site.
- > Peer Review - When a designated Quality Reviewer is not available, volunteers can review each other's returns.

Note: Self-Review, quality reviewing a return you prepared, is not an acceptable quality review method.

Publication 5299 Quality Review Refresher and Publication 5310 Tax Return Quality Review Job Aid are available for volunteers who will be performing the role of a Quality Reviewer.

Quality Review Process

The Quality Review Process must include four critical actions:

- Engaging the taxpayer in the review process.
- Using the Quality Review Checklist in Publication 4012 during every review.
- Comparing all information provided by the taxpayer on Form 13614-C and supporting documents against the completed tax return entries.
- If necessary, using reference materials to verify that tax law determinations are correct.

Quality Review Checklist

All items on the Quality Review Checklist must be addressed during a quality Review. The Quality Review Checklist is located in Publication 4012.

- Taxpayer (and Spouse's) identity was verified with a photo ID during the visit
- The volunteer return preparer and quality reviewer are certified to prepare/review this return and return is with scope of the program
- All questions in Parts I through V are answered and unsure boxes were discussed with the taxpayer and corremarked yes or no
- All applicable information in the shaded area on Page 1 was completed by the certified volunteer preparer
- Names, Addresses, SSNs, ITINs, and EINs, are verified and correct
- Filing status is correct
- Dependency determinations are correct
- All Income (with or without source documents) checked "yes" in Part III is verified and correct
- All applicable adjustments to income are verified and correct
- Standard or Itemized Deductions are correct
- All eligible credits are correct
- All applicable provisions of ACA were considered for each person named on the tax return and are correct
- Federal Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments are correct
- Direct Deposit/Debit and checking/saving account numbers are correct
- SIDN is correct on the return
- During the visit, the taxpayer(s) was advised that they are responsible for the information on their return
- Any errors identified or incomplete Form 13614-C are discussed with the preparer

Course Summary

In this course, you have learned that:

- ➤ SPEC has determined there is a direct correlation between the proper use of Form 13614-C and the preparation of an accurate tax return.
- ➤ Form 13614-C, Intake/Interview and Quality Review Sheet, must be used to complete and quality review all tax returns at VITA/TCE sites.
- ➤ An effective interview must be performed to verify tax information for each tax return.
- ➤ All quality reviews must be conducted by a designated or peerto-peer quality reviewer.

Question 1

All IRS-certified volunteer preparers participating in the VITA/TCE programs must use Form 13614-C along with an effective interview for every return prepared at the site.

A. True

B. False

Question 2

What should the certified volunteer preparer do before starting the tax return?
